D E C I S I O N

ON THE IMPOSITION OF A PROVISIONAL ANTI-DUMPING DUTY ON IMPORTS OF WHEAT SEED ORIGINATING IN THE REPUBLIC OF SERBIA

1. A provisional additional anti-dumping duty in the amount of EUR 0.04 per kilogram of net weight shall be imposed on imports of the product “wheat, seed for sowing”, classified under tariff code 1001912000, for all producers and exporters originating in the Republic of Serbia.
2. Payment of the duty referred to in point 1 shall be a condition for the release of the product for free circulation in the Republic of Kosovo. Kosovo Customs shall calculate the duty on the basis of the declared and verified net weight of the goods. The duty shall apply only to products released for free circulation from the date on which this Decision begins to produce legal effects and shall not apply retroactively. The measure shall apply for six (6) months from that date, unless amended, suspended or repealed earlier by a decision issued in accordance with the law.
3. Kosovo Customs shall implement and record the duty, while the Trade Department shall monitor its implementation and report to the Minister on the effects of the measure and the progress of the investigation.
4. This Decision shall enter into force one (1) day following its publication in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Kosovo.

REASONING

On 16 March 2026, “Agroelita”, a manufacturing company from Klina, submitted an application for the imposition of measures on imports of wheat seed originating in the Republic of Serbia. Following a preliminary review and consultation with the Commission for the Assessment of Special Duties on Imports, a decision and notice initiating an anti-dumping investigation concerning the product classified under tariff code 1001912000 were issued on 4 June 2026. As at the date of issuance of this Decision, the time limits prescribed by Article 39, paragraph 4, of Law No. 04/L-240 on Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Measures have been observed.

The relevant parties and the CEFTA Secretariat were notified, questionnaires were sent to the interested parties, and a hearing with representatives of importers was held on 21 August 2026. Since cooperation by exporters and other parties was only partial, the facts available were used for data that could not be fully verified, in accordance with Article 35 of Law No. 04/L-240 on Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Measures.

The analysis of the data collected in the investigation shows that the normal value of the product on the market of the Republic of Serbia is higher than the export price at a comparable level of trade. The provisional duty of EUR 0.04/kg does not exceed the preliminary dumping margin.

The data collected show that imports from the Republic of Serbia account for the predominant share of imports of the product under investigation and that, during the period analyzed, they exerted significant pressure on prices and on the competitive position of the domestic industry. Import prices below the prices of the domestic product, an increase in imports from Serbia, and underutilization of domestic production capacity were established.

The analysis of causation also took into account imports from other countries, general market developments, and other factors that may affect the domestic industry. Nevertheless, at this stage of the investigation, the evidence collected supports a preliminary affirmative determination that dumped imports from the Republic of Serbia have caused material injury to the domestic industry and that a causal link exists between the dumped imports and the injury established.

The imposition of the provisional measure is necessary to prevent further injury while the investigation continues. The duty of EUR 0.04/kg is fair and reasonable in relation to the preliminary dumping margin and is limited in terms of product, origin and duration. Taking into account the interests of the domestic industry, importers and farmers, as well as the need to ensure market supply, the measure is considered appropriate, proportionate and in the interest of Kosovo pursuant to Article 39 of Law No. 04/L-240 on Anti-Dumping and Countervailing Measures. The final treatment of the amounts collected or secured shall be carried out in accordance with Article 45 of this Law.

Since only one exporter responded to the questionnaire and the available data do not allow individual margins to be determined for all exporters or producers, the provisional duty shall apply on a country-wide basis to the exporting country, in accordance with Article 44, paragraph 2, of Law No. 04/L-240, without prejudice to the possibility of individual determinations in the final decision.

The provisional measure forms part of an investigation initiated and ongoing in accordance with the law, is limited in time, and is intended to prevent further injury pending completion of the proceedings. Accordingly, its issuance constitutes implementation of the applicable legislation within the Ministry’s area of responsibility and is in compliance with Articles 30 and 31 of Law No. 08/L-117 on the Government of the Republic of Kosovo.

Based on the above preliminary determinations, the analysis of the Trade Department, and the recommendation of the Commission for the Assessment of Special Duties on Imports, it was decided in the enacting clause of this Decision.
